

Altamaha River Run Canoe and Kayak Excursion

Explore the Mighty Altamaha River: One of America's Last Great Places, Georgia's Natural Treasure!

Saturday, April 22, 2017,
www.waynetourism.com

An 11 or 16-mile family paddle on the beautiful Altamaha. The Paddle will begin at Upper County Landing in Wayne County. The 11-mile paddle will conclude at Oglethorpe (Pig Farm) Landing. The 16-mile will conclude at Jaycee Landing. The 16-mile paddle will break for lunch at the Pig Farm stop.

Meet at Upper County Landing at 7:15 a.m. to drop off canoes/kayaks and then move vehicles to the take out points at Pig Farm Landing or at Jaycee Landing. Shuttles will leave Jaycee Landing to take paddlers back to the put in point at Upper County at 7:45 a.m. Individuals renting equipment need to be at Jaycee Landing no later than 7:45 a.m. or at Pig Farm Landing no later than 8:00. The excursion will begin at 8:30 a.m. from Upper County Landing.

Entry Fee: $15.00 prior to Saturday; $20 Saturday. If registering Saturday, please bring correct amount. Children 10 and under free. Bring your canoes, kayaks, life jackets, sunscreen, and a sack lunch. For canoe or kayak rentals see approved outfitter. Outfitter will be on site to deliver and pick up rental canoes and equipment. Altamaha River Partnership tee shirts will be available for $12.

For more info contact Wayne County Board of Tourism at (912) 427-3233 or email Heather at heather@waynetourism.com or waynetourism@gmail.com

Approved Outfitter

Altamaha River Expeditions

Larry Brantley

(912) 294-3604

All canoes and kayaks - single or double - $45

Outfitter will be on site to deliver and pick up all rental canoes and equipment.